Two years ago in Paris, I recorded a roundtable McKay Interview with people whose fingers were very much on the Parisienne pulse. Very recently, in this year of Covid19, I have done something similar in Geneva, a city struggling to get back on its feet after the lockdown/confinement.

My Guests, to discuss a wide range of relevant and very hard issues in Geneva's hotel and hospitality industry, are:

Daniel Grangier, Proprietor of Le Milan, in whose restaurant the "Interview" was recorded.

Adrien Genier, CEO of Geneva Tourism & Congress

Thierry Lavalley, General Manager of The Fairmont Grand Hotel Geneva & President of the Geneva Hotel Association.

Vincent Subilia, Director-General, Geneva Chamber of Commerce, Industry & Services (CCIG)
